A. A. YODER HAS POLICE COMMISSIONER ARRESTED

Richmond Officer is Charged With Interfering With Duties of Department Chief.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 9.—Police Commissioner Cris Manning was arrested at Eleventh and Main streets about midday today by Policeman S. S. Lear on a warrant sworn out by Aaron A. Yoder, charging the police commissioner with interfering with the chief of police in the discharge of his duty.

Mr. Manning was detained at Eleventh and Main streets until the patrol wagon could be summoned, into which he was placed and driven to the First district police station.

L. Z. Morris and Commissioner Gordon and Wei, with whom Mr. Manning was talking when he was arrested, went on his surety in the sum of $100 for his appearance in police court tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. Yoder, an agitator, is said to have had some difficulty in getting a justice of the peace to issue the paper, three separate magistrates flatly refusing to have any hand in the matter, which they considered exceedingly absurd. It is said that in police court tomorrow Yoder will allege against Commissioner Manning that the accused has interfered with Major Werner, preventing him closing certain disorderly houses in this city.

"The sea resort you were speaking of is a pretty gay place, isn't it?" "I should say so! The only thing there that isn't dissipated is the fog."—Baltimore American.

MARKET STAGNATED; CLERKS DISMISSED

Listless Indifference on Stock Exchange Becomes More and More Pronounced.

NOT EXPECTED TO BE MERELY TEMPORARY

Professional Traders Are Becoming More Discouraged and Office Forces Being Reduced—Loss of Large Commission Houses Becomes Great.

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The contingent of professional board room traders which has made up the recent stock market shows a dwindling tendency. The discouragement of efforts to move prices proves too much. Listless indifference to every variety of news developments becomes more and more pronounced. That the stagnation of the stock market is not expected to be merely temporary is shown by the general reduction of office and clerical forces which is going on among brokerage houses. In the case of the large commission houses which maintain elaborate private wire systems and numerous branch offices, the amount of losses is large. The price of stock exchange seats is falling as another index of the low ebb to which purely stock market operations have fallen. The meager daily transactions are made up in large portion of transactions between board room members themselves and upwards of half of the total is concentrated in two or three stocks. Events concerning financial affairs or values of securities are discussed therefore for their abstract bearing rather than for any practical effect on prices.

The good promise for the crops found in yesterday's government report on grains was responsible for an undertone of firmness in today's stock market. The sensitiveness of opinion on the crops was indicated, however, by the rise in the price of corn of the official prediction of frosts in portions of the corn belt tonight.

Forecasts of the current movement indicated a decrease in bank cash for the week of not over $3,000,000 compared with estimates last week of $10,000,000. This moderated outflow is a factor in the slightly easier tone of the money market this week. The demand remains so restricted owing to the stock market stagnation as to make the market almost nominal. Offerings of funds on time on account of out-of-town banks are reported by money brokers.

Business for the day made a new record of activity for the year. Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,563,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
